Questionnaire

1. Am I convinced that I cannot have happiness, that I cannot find peace, without Jesus truly being the Lord of my life?
2. Do I look for my happiness in things apart from Jesus?
3. Do I know my Faith enough to be able to explain to others why Jesus must be number one? Or do I have difficulty explaining that?
4. Do the Catholics in my parish or diocese know how to “give reasons for their Faith”? Do they understand the difference between Catholicism and different types of Protestantism? Do they understand that Jesus Christ founded the Church, one, holy, Catholic and Apostolic?
5. Do Catholics in my parish or diocese generally understand that their Faith does not depend on the quality of preaching or singing in the church? Does their belief depend too much on the talent of their parish priest or bishop? Would they remain Catholic if they had a difficult parish priest?
6. Are there distinctly non-Catholic cultural elements prevalent among the “believers” in my parish or diocese? Elements like lack of Christian charity, disdain for others, hatred, family fighting, promiscuousness, corruption? Do my people realise that these behaviours are irreconcilable with their Catholic Faith?
7. Would my people remain Catholic if they had to choose between their Faith and prosperity?
8. What is the main reason for Catholics falling away in my parish or diocese? What is the main hindrance to evangelisation in my parish or diocese?
